

STEPHENSON TO BE FIRST.

Latest Programme for the Prosecution of Police Officials.

Charges Will Be Formulated as Soon as Possible.

Assistant District Attorney Wellman, who has charge of the prosecution of the police officials accused by witnesses before the Lexow Committee, visited Police Headquarters at noon today and had a consultation with Supt. Byrnes. He remained in the latter's private office over half an hour, and then together they went up to the office of the Police Commissioners and held a consultation with them.

Mr. Wellman, who has been engaged during the past week tabulating the evidence taken before the Lexow Committee, stated on his arrival at Police Headquarters that he would proceed at once to prepare charges against the accused police officials. He said, however, that he could make no definite statement in regard to the order in which they would be prosecuted until he had further examined the evidence and consulted with the Commissioners and Superintendent.

In all probability, he said, "Police Capt. Stephenson's case will be the first to be taken up by the Committee," although it cannot say positively at the present time.

Box-maker Ryan testified before the Committee that he had paid Stephenson $100 for allowing him to obstruct the street from his factory. This check-book was also produced to show that he had paid the Captain the money.

The Police Commissioners will hold their regular weekly meeting Wednesday, at which it is probable that the formal charges against one or more of the accused police officials will be considered by them.

It is not believed that any of the cases will be brought to trial this week. The Police Board, however, can bring up any case for trial after charges have been prepared on two days.

A number of the witnesses who appeared before the Lexow Committee were summoned to the District Attorney's office this morning to meet Mr. Wellman and be privately examined by him. Some of them, including Mrs. Sanford, who formerly kept a disorderly house, were on hand at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Wellman, however, did not go to the District Attorney's office, but, as it is stated, went to Police Headquarters.

Mr. Wellman said that at the consultation with the Commissioners, nothing definite had been decided about Capt. Stephenson's trial, or that of any other of the accused, and that it was very improbable that any definite charges would be formulated this week, but the work would be carried on as rapidly as possible, and that there would be no unnecessary delay in bringing the accused to trial.

Mr. Wellman will devote the afternoon to examining witnesses in his private office.

Dr. Lancy Nicoll, when seen by an "Evening World" reporter this morning, said that he would have nothing whatever to do with any of the proceedings against the uniformed members of the force before the Commissioners. He had not been retained, he said, to defend any of the men, and his duties and responsibilities in connection with the Police Department were over until the Lexow Committee assembled again in the Fall.

Lawyer Friend & House will probably appear for several of the accused policemen when the trials come on.

MRS. MILLER MUST SETTLE.

Unless She Pays $267.97 She Will Be Taken to Jail.

Judge Bloch, of the Court of Common Pleas, gave a decision today, giving Mrs. Caroline M. Miller, who, it is alleged, is also known as Mettie Rodman, and Mrs. Brink, the alternative of paying $267.97 or going to jail.

The decision in this case, which is a matter of some importance, was given in her examination before a referee in proceedings to foreclose a mortgage on the house, 6 West Eighty-second street, in the name of Mrs. Rodman.

It is alleged that Henry B. Sire, the defendant in the matter, had a mortgage on the property, and that Mrs. Miller refused to tell the referee whether she was not Mrs. Rodman. She was before the referee a year or two ago, charged with contempt of court in this same proceeding.

With Judge Sire unable to identify her, the referee was unable to identify her, and the fine is paid.

ANTI-JESUIT LAWS STAND.

The Bundesrath Rejects the Bill Repealing Them.

BERLIN, July 8.—The Bundesrath has rejected the bill repealing the anti-Jesuit laws.

CAUGHT IN A TRAP.

Witness Fell a Victim to the Lawyer's Shrewdness.

In a certain case of damages for false imprisonment the plaintiff had been a saleswoman. She had been arrested, and was being held in a room. She was told that she was being held in a room. She was told that she was being held in a room.

"What? You didn't? Why not?" "I seemed to be in a room," he said. "That's all," he said.

The plaintiff's attorney called another witness, but Mr. Barrett interrupted and said to the Court:

TARIFF BILL CONFERENCE.

Democrats to Get Together Before Calling In Republicans.

Congressman Warner Wants to Be Heard on Free Sugar.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—It was 12:30 today when the Democratic conference on the tariff bill got together. The conference was held in the room of the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce, which has been selected because it is larger and in a more retired place than the room of the Committee on Finance.

The beginning of the proceedings was characterized by all the initiatory proceedings on the tariff bill. The Democratic conference will make an effort to agree upon the main features of the bill before inviting the Republican members to meet with them.

Representative Warner, of New York, who secured the passage of the free sugar amendment to the House bill, presented a request to Mr. Wilson that he might be heard by the conferees on certain features of the bill. It is not yet determined, however, whether the Committee will accord hearings to Senators and Representatives.

Mr. Wilson, who has been seriously ill, much better.

CALLING IN THE NAVY.

Forces at Mare Island Ordered to Co-Operate with Gen. Ruger.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—In line with the instructions issued Saturday to Gen. Ruger, commanding the Department of California, to take charge of the Central Pacific Railroad and open up communication with the East, now interrupted for eight days, the Administration took another important step this morning by ordering the entire naval force now gathered at the Mare Island Navy-Yard to co-operate with the troops at the Presidio, San Francisco.

The available naval strength at San Francisco and vicinity is roughly estimated at 650 men, including blue-jackets and marines. This estimate is made on the assumption that the cruiser Charleston is at San Francisco. That vessel left Acapulco, Mexico, several days ago. She carries a fighting force of 200 men.
